

YOUR PAST DOESN'T DEFINE YOU

SMALL GROUP GUIDE

DISTINCT

We have all sinned and made mistakes in our past. No one knows this better than the Apostle Paul. Like Paul, we should be transformed by the love of God because God does not allow our past to define us.

Once we understand the unconditional love of God, it should inspire us to bounce back from our sins and mistakes. Like Paul, we can be legendary if we bounce back God's way—by confessing our sins and mistakes, repenting and turning from them, and living for Christ according to the Bible.

THIS WEEK

THE BIG IDEA

Be legendary by bouncing back from your past sins and mistakes.

THE BIBLE

1 Thessalonians 5:11; Acts 22:4-5; Acts 9:1-5

1. What stood out from today's message?
2. After hearing today's message, do you understand the love of God better than before?
3. Have you ever been guilty of saying, "They'll never change!"? If so, what made you say that?
4. Did you get a new perspective today of how God can change people from the inside out?
5. Do you believe that through God, someone's past doesn't have to define them?
6. PRAYER: Take a moment of silence and confess any past sin to God so He can forgive you of it.
