

The Lord Is My Restorer

8/20/2023

No one is perfect. Everyone is going to fall and make mistakes at some point or another. The world may label people, judge them, condemn them, or cancel them, but Jesus never does any of that. He is the Good Shepherd who promises to restore his sheep when they fall. He picks them up, washes them clean of guilt, and puts them back on the right path.

THIS WEEK

BIG IDEA

Don't run away from God when you fall, run to Him so He can restore you.

BIBLE

Psalm 23:3; John 4:1-30;
2 Corinthians 5:17; Proverbs 3:12

1. What stood out from today's message?
2. We live in cancel culture. Have you seen someone condemned, canceled, or labeled because of their past? Tell us.
3. If you're veering off the right path, why is correction sometimes difficult to receive?
4. How would you describe repentance in your own words? Is there anything you need to repent of now?
5. Can you describe how it feels to serve of God of second and many, many chances?
6. Write 2 Corinthians 5:17 – _____
